Call for Papers

Everyone is encouraged to submit papers for presentation. A plaque and cash prize will be given to the winners of the CSSP Best paper and Best Poster competitions.

Guidelines for Abstracts/Paper

- All papers (oral and poster) should be in English, an original research output in crop science, which has never been published nor presented in local and international conference/meeting and should be written in English.
- Abstracts for both oral and poster entries should be submitted on time following the prescribed format:
  1. The full title of the paper should be CAPITALIZED, in bold font, 12 pt. Times New Roman and left aligned;
  2. The authors' full name (first, middle initial, last) should be underlined. Put an asterisk (*) after the name of the author who will present the paper. The complete office/institution address of the researchers should follow (do not abbreviate). In cases where there are several authors coming from different institutions, superscript number should be indicated corresponding to the person's address/affiliations;
  3. The text should start on the next line, indented five spaces, 12 pt Times New Roman with 300 words maximum;
  4. Provide 5-6 keywords arranged in alphabetical order.
- Poster paper may be a preliminary report of an on-going research/study or highlights of a completed research report. It should be prepared in a 30" x 40" portrait, well organized, concise, and self-explanatory. For clarity, the information should be presented in clear and logical sequence using photos, figures, and tables as necessary. The following information shall be the major content: title, authors' names, office address/affiliations, brief introduction/rationale, objectives, methodology, results, and conclusion. The title should be readable at least 10-15 feet away; text should be no less than 24pt. font. During the Poster Session, one of the authors should be present.
- For best paper competition, follow the Philippine Journal of Crop Science (PJCS) format.
